Re: US v. Rodney Person, 09 Cr. 983 (WHP)

Dear Judge Pauley:

I am counsel for Rodney Person, and I respectfully request a 45-day adjournment of his violation of supervised release hearing, currently scheduled for May 28, 2020. Mr. Person was arraigned on the specifications by the Hon. Deborah A. Batts, and the matter was adjourned pending the outcome of Mr. Person's Westchester County indictment, # 1079-2019, on which the seven specifications are based.

Fred Bittlingmaier, Mr. Person's attorney in the Westchester County indictment, informs me that the narcotics were suppressed after a Mapp hearing. Mr. Person still faces misdemeanor and traffic offenses in Westchester County, and that case is pending without a specified adjournment date.

AUSA Michael Maimin informs me that he has no objection to the adjournment.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Donald J. Yannella".

Donald J. Yannella, Esq.

Application granted. Conference adjourned to July 22, 2020 at 11:00 a.m.

SO ORDERED:

A handwritten signature in blue ink, appearing to read "William H. Pauley III".

WILLIAM H. PAULEY III
